

ROMULUS SEEKS FOUR MILLS

School Millage OK Means Restored Programs

ROMULUS—The Board of Education of Romulus Community Schools is seeking voter approval of additional millage for one year for school operations during the 1969-70 school year.

The requested increase of 4 mills for every $1,000 of assessed property valuation, as state equalized, will be decided at the June 9 school election along with filling two expiring four-year school board terms.

The passage of the four (4) mill tax increase being proposed at the Annual School Election will insure the restoration of cuts made by the Administration and the Romulus Community School Board last September.

Assistant Superintendent William Jakad, in commenting on the millage plea, reported that a total comprehensive educational program for all children of the school district will be nearer to fruition with the aid of the additional revenues derived from the increased school tax, he added.

***
"THE ELEMENTARY children of the Romulus Schools will benefit from the restoration of classes in general and instrumental music, art, physical education and by the reemployment of approximately 12 teachers who will be hired when the millage passes.

All these activities serve as introductory classes and later in junior and senior high provide the student replacements in the secondary musical, art and athletic groups and programs."

"At the regular secondary classroom level five teachers will be restored as will one and one-half counselors. Also at the secondary level will be the reestablishment of a full program of athletics including staff and equipment. These programs require eleven more coaches or assistants at the senior high and six at the junior high."

In the area of special education restoration will include one teacher of the mentally handicapped, one psychologist-diagnostician, one secretary, two speech therapists, and one director, Jakad added.

The personnel needed for the proposed restoration will amount to twenty-five and one-half teaching staff plus the seventeen extra curricular assignments in the athletic programs.

Jakad is hopeful of employing staff for all of the positions listed as soon after the June 9 election as he can recruit them.

"Not only will I have to employ for the restoration requirements but for many new positions brought about by the growth during the past school year and the anticipated growth during the summer," said Jakad.

An article in next week's Romulus Roman will delineate the required additional programs and staff.

Janack represented the Romulus Schools' Board of Education. ## Morris and Lovette Seeking Re-Election to School Board

***
VOTERS IN addition to voting for candidates for the school board posts are also to vote on a Millage Proposition calling for an additional assessment of 4 mills for one year on each $1,000 of assessed property valuation, as state equalized.

Morris and his wife, Beulah, are natives of Romulus. Their home is near Morris's birthplace and near the home of his mother, Mrs. Flora Morris.

Romulus Approves Higher Budget

Romulus — An increased general operating budget for the 1969-70 operations of Romulus Township has been approved by the Township Board.

The 1969-70 budget calls for disbursements of an estimated $1,118,151 and estimated revenues of $1,122,596.

Your Romulus Roman carrier will be making his monthly rounds this week to collect 40 cents for four weeks in May. Prompt payment of your bill will enable your carrier to meet his deadline.

Pay only your regular carrier and ask for a receipt. If you have any questions contact the Associated Newspapers Circulation Department at 729-4000.

This compares with disbursements of $570,200 and revenues of $710,425 in the 1968-69 year.

The 1968-69 budget totals are based on remaining three months of estimated disbursements and revenues.

***
THE PROPOSED budget after three revisions was finally approved by the Township Board at their May 12 special meeting.

The increased budget does not raise township millage currently at $10.27 per $1,000 of assessed property valuation, as state equalized.

This tax levy includes township operation, water and sewer bond retirement and Peoples Community Hospital Authority assessment of four tenths mill.

State of Michigan rebates, general tax levy, special assessments less current delinquencies, plus 1968 current collection—final settlement and delinquent tax collection and interest will bring in $634,246 of the total estimated revenues for 1969-70 as against $496,404 last year.

The hike in 1969-70 disbursements is attributed to the operation newly created 34th District Court. This is reported at $38,000.

Wage adjustments for township employees, increase in the PCHA assessment due to increase in township's property valuations from $31,687 to $36,160.

In addition the township's pension and retirement jumped from a 1968-69 estimate of $24,800 to $51,900 for the 1968-70 year.

Officials presented the students with red carpet treatment and tour of township activities.

House Approves Mahalak's State School Aid Amendment

The State House of Representatives has approved a state school aid bill amendment, introduced by Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus, which would provide additional assistance to school districts which have had to receive all or part of the students from dissolved districts.

"This would provide badly needed aid for the school districts which had to absorb the students from the former Sumpter District," Mahalak said. "In addition, there are a number of other schools in the state in similar situations which would be assisted."

The amendment, in effect, makes additional state aid available to the receiving school districts. The per pupil amount of the increased state assistance is based on the number of pupils from the dissolved districts and the state equalized valuation of the districts.

Faust Urges Support For School Millage

TO THE EDITOR:

I have followed with deep interest the financial plight of the Romulus School System. I am aware of the Board's tight money situation, and its desire to provide adequate education to Romulus students.

The need for total reform of the State's tax structure in regard to education is well known. A way to shift this burden from property owners to a more equitable arrangement must be found. The entire educational

Those districts with lowest state equalized valuation would receive the greatest amount of state aid.

THE MAHALAK amendment would allow the state to spend as much of $1,250,000 for this special type of relief.

There is no question that we have a responsibility to these school districts," Mahalak said. "This is especially true of the districts which were forced to take students from the Sumpter School District. They suddenly found themselves with large numbers of additional pupils, requiring additional teachers, classrooms and supplies."

He pointed out that the Airport School District has had five unsuccessful millage elections since 1967, that the Huron School Districts had a similar number of elections with the last one successful by a narrow margin.

Mahalak said, "The problem of crowded conditions continues to exist. Voters question why they should have to pay the full costs of new school construction when the state has failed to give them the assistance they need. It is colleges we are embarking upon a program which will provide community college education to thousands of students in extension centers located mainly in existing schools throughout the district. The school facilities will be used late afternoons and evenings. Our support will come from tuition, state aid, and private funds, the trustees stated.

Applications for part-time instructors to teach the classes during the academic year beginning September, 1969 are sought.

Generally the requirements include a Master's degree or equivalent and teaching experience. A pay schedule has not yet been determined, but as with most part-time teaching it will be based on credit hours taught.

"We will need classroom teachers in a wide range of academic areas and hopefully in a number of vocational areas as well. There is also a pressing need for qualified counselors. We are especially anxious at this time to receive applications from everyone interested in taking part in this pioneering venture," the trustees added.

Currently a Bill before the state legislature seeks to give permanency to Wayne County Community College and to provide for it the same powers as the other community colleges in Michigan.

Other bills have been introduced to provide operating money and to pay for the cost of a special millage election.

Wayne County legislators have led the fight for legislation to enable the rapid and strong development of WCCC.

"Although we had sought authorization from the legislature for a millage levy without a vote, this request has been dropped from the legislation before both houses because of the lack of sufficient support," the trustees said.

Romulus '69 Tax Factor Boosts Property Levy

ROMULUS—The 1969 tax bills that will be sent to Romulus property owners will reflect a tax increase, it was disclosed Monday.

The 1969 tax factor used to compute the state equalization value of township property has been raised from 1.6651 percent in 1968 to 1.7399 percent for 1969 tax computing, Harold L. Reiner, deputy assessor for Romulus Township reported.

This tax factor is set by the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation under the tax assessing procedures of the Michigan Tax Commission.

The current township tax levy, county and school taxes as of edition time remains the same (1968 totals).

It is when the higher tax factor is used to arrive at the state equalized valuation of the property that hikes in the yearly tax payment is noticed.

THE 1969 assessed value of township property is set at $62,849,440 and when state equalized it jumps to $109,350,650, Reiner reported.

In 1968, assessed value of township property was $54,289,600 and when state equalized for taxing purposes it rose to $90,389,960.

A property tax example, using the higher tax factor of 1.74 percent or $1.74 for every $100 of assessed property valuation, was cited by Reiner. As follows:

Take a parcel of land worth $1,000 and buildings (can be home) worth $7,000 or a total of $8,000 assessed value. Now taking the tax factor of 1.74, multiply $8,000 by the tax factor and the state equalized value comes to $13,920.

The total tax payment due is arrived at by multiplying the state equalized value by the current tax levy total.

IN ROMULUS, the present county tax is $7.15 mills, township, 10.27 mills and schools, 27.78 mills, or a total of $45.20 mills for each $1,000 state equalized value. In the above example the tax would be $629.18.

Reiner stated that "state equalized value is approximately 50 percent of true cash value. True cash value of the above example would then be $27,840.

Special assessments of course would also be added to the property taxes such as dust treatment, street lighting, paving, etc."

"Revaluation of all land, buildings and personal property accounts could greatly reduce or eliminate the state equalizing factor, thus acquiring uniformity throughout the township," Reiner added.

SMITH WINS ELECTION

Township Board failed to appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term during the required 45-day period following Bizek's resignation.

The township's electorate was permitted to submit write-in selections on the Democratic or Republican ticket in Monday's balloting.

THE ELECTION returns on Monday listed six write-in selections for the $17,500 a year post. They were:

Alfred J. Perry, present township clerk, 30 write-in votes.

John Rarrick, president of Romulus Homeowners Association, one write-in vote.

Hyle Carmichael, former manager of the Romulus Branch of the Manufacturers National Bank, two votes.

Ellis T. Pennington, present township board trustee, one vote. James C. Stewart, present trustee, one vote.

William Oakley, Jr.,

member of the Romulus Board of Education, one vote.

IN THE primary election, Perry received 407 votes; Stewart received 555 votes; and Pennington received 406 votes.

Election officials were disappointed at the vote turnout attributing it to a lack of interest in the election by the Republican Party, lack of candidates and general apathy.

The Board of Canvassers was to meet on Tuesday night to certify the returns. The Township Board also meets Tuesday and it is expected that Smith will be sworn in office.

Smith has been a resident of the community for the last 24 years. He and his wife, Margaret, are the parents of seven children. The Smiths reside at 7300 Taft, Inkster.

He has been a member of the Romulus Board of Education and was elected trustee in 1968. He held the clerkship during the years of 1959, through 1965, when he resigned to enter private business.

THE AMENDMENT was one attached by the House to a school aid bill passed earlier by the Senate. The vote was 83 to 18. The bill, with the House amendments, will be sent back to the Senate for approval and Mahalak said, "We must be ever watchful to see if the Senate concurs on this amendment."

The special financial considerations for the Airport, Huron, Lincoln and Van Buren School Districts were recommended last year by the State Board of Education.

Why do some magazines pass away while others live on to a ripe old age? ## Sex Education Begs New Approach

The subject of sex education in schools is coming on stronger and stronger and could well be the biggest issue to hit the headlines since civil rights. And being such a sensitive area, many concerned parents are beginning to fully realize what is transpiring.

Many parents feel this subject should be kept to the privacy of the home. Especially is this true as more and more information comes to light concerning S.I.E.C.U.S. material which is used in school districts all over the country.

Questioning Livonia parents are rising up and asking for the teaching of sex education to be put on the June 9 ballot. Educators in the Crestwood and Cherry Hill School Districts have been accused by parents of making statements about the sex education program, then later publicly denying they even made the statements.

In action that sounds like it comes from a cloak-and-dagger novel, school teachers have told of smuggling sex material out of schools; a nearby elementary school principal talked for two hours with two mothers then said he would deny ever having spoken to them; and another educator told five mothers something, later denied it then blushed when one of the mothers at a large public meeting asked him why he was not telling the truth.

Over and over again schools have been vague about what is and what is not being taught to the children. And this brings a burning question to the serious thinker. Why this massive all-out push for schools to teach sex education? Sex education, like religion, is a vital personal matter and it is the parents' responsibility how it is done. Also, with schools showing greater laxity in the area of morals, giving in more and more to ridiculous students demands, we can only wonder how far their teaching of sex education would go.

We propose this constructive approach. Parents should instruct, or have their church instruct, their children. And if the schools feel they must enter this area, let them:

- 1) Teach parents and let them decide what to teach their children.
- 2) Provide a nurse or counselors at schools to answer any questions which may arise.

We feel this is the sensible approach to a sensitive subject.

School Trustees Deserve to Be Paid

Robert Reichard's decision not to seek re-election to the Wayne Community School District's Board of Education underscored an old problem which this year was left unresolved by the closest of all possible votes by the trustees.

Although the issue of pay for trustees serving on the Board of Education has been defeated by the voters each time it has appeared on the election ballot, this year the proposition will not even be on the ballot.

To say that trustees have reached the point where they have given up ever thinking of being compensated financially for their time spent at Board meetings is now evident in Reichard's decision not to seek another term after serving on the Board for five years.

Few governing boards today are responsible for handling and spending more money than that of the Wayne Community School District, one of the largest in the state. Although they spend millions of dollars each year and devote considerable time and energy to their duties aside from attendance at regular meetings, trustees receive no pay whatsoever.

Unless the voters wake up and realize that neglecting the matter of pay for School

Livonia's Loss Is County's Gain

Western Wayne County School Districts have gained a supporter with the appointment of retiring Livonia Superintendent Benton Yates to head the Education Division of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG).

In that position, he will speak for education to the other units of government in the six-county metropolitan area, and throughout the state.

Who can better speak for the suburban school districts and their problems than Benton Yates. He has seen his own Livonia District grow from 4,000 students in 1955 to more than 36,000 and has seen the physical plant of his district grow to 31 elementary, nine junior high and four senior high schools.

With his 35 years of educational experience, Yates may be just the catalyst needed to pull the metropolitan districts together to be a force to effect needed fiscal reform and to find a means for providing quality education for all of Michigan's school children.

Killing any incentive for seeking a School Board post by not recognizing the obvious facts that it is expensive to serve without pay, even a nominal sum, is bound to result in this public office going by default to those who are financially well off and not necessarily to the best qualified candidates. We would hope the voters of this School District accept the facts and approve the pay for trustees the next time it appears on the ballot which won't be June 9 this year but should be at a subsequent school election.

REFLECTIONS

Just Call Me Eve

I'm so glad the stars are in. For years I've been sneaking horoscope magazines into the house and reading them in the bathroom. And now I've discovered that astrology is well on the road to respectability...again.

There was a time that no important person would have thought of doing anything without consulting his astrologer. However, for the last few hundred years, the stars have only been for looking at at night.

I can't exactly say I have been happy with astrology, even though irresistibly drawn to it. Most astrologers seemed to take a dim view of my birth-sign...Taurus. They wrote things like, short-necked, stodgy, hot-tempered, stubborn...and radiant. I never could quite figure out how a short-necked, stodgy, hot-tempered, stubborn person could be radiant.

Besides the figure of the bull was a bit repulsive.

You can imagine then how excited I was when I opened up a magazine the other evening and didn't see one thing about being stodgy, short-necked and ill-tempered. Instead, there was the Taurus love horoscope.

Well, naturally, I pounced on that in a hurry, and I'm just sorry someone hadn't written it several years ago when I was younger. My whole life might have been changed, for I found out something about myself that I had never suspected.

I found out that I "drive men mad just by the way I put on lip gloss or bite into an apple."

Well! I closed that magazine and sat staring over at my love-mate, who was leaning back in his lazy-boy chair, shoes off...sound asleep.

"Oh you kid, you," I whispered gleefully. "Just wait till I find an apple."

The apple was red and juicy, and I shined it up real good. Then I went in and sat on the arm of the lazy-boy, and shook its occupant gently.

'IF IT FITZ...!'

Bigots Certainly Aren't Lazy

One thing I'll admit about my bigoted readers, they aren't lazy. They always have the energy and dedication to write long letters explaining that Martin Luther King was a Communist.

As a guy who still owes Aunt Clara a thank-you note for Christmas 1956, I have an instinctive admiration for all letter-writers. The man who really cares wouldn't send canned greeting cards to Mr. Hallmark himself. The classy thing is to send a personal letter, hand-written or poorly typed to prove it wasn't really your secretary's idea.

This kind of class I ain't got. I haven't written my mother in 18 years. Instead, I sneak personal messages into this column and sell her a subscription (happy Mother's Day, Gertrude). Come to think, the only letter I can remember writing was to General Hershey, the one with almonds who runs the draft. I told him I was simply returning his greetings, but I spelled every word with a lisp and a limp, hoping he'd re-evaluate the seriousness of the national emergency. It didn't work, and I never again called a general darling.

Anyway, a jerk who won't write to his mother certainly hasn't got the ambition to write letters to the editor. But I stoop in awe of people who do, which is what I started to say in the first place. And I am positively enthralled with people who not only send me messages, but do it in a unique manner. Once I got a month-old cupcake with "This is chocolate, just your style" picked out the frosting.

And there was that Goldwater fan who threatened to throttle my wife. His letter was fashioned from bits of headlines clipped from newspapers and pasted on a brown paper bag, just like in a kidnapping movie. This really made me feel like a bigshot. I relayed this letter to Efram Zimbalist Jr. who drives Fords for the FBI. So far no arrests have been made. I think J. Edgar Hoover watches Ed Sullivan.

The messiest letter came in response to my column on draft-card burning. A reader burned my words and mailed me the ashes. Nobody likes a smart ash on his trousers.

Just now I received an envelope bulging with newspaper clippings. Some energetic soul collected dozens of crime articles. And he circled the words "Negro" and "black" each time they were used. I got his message: If we'd murder all the Negroes, there wouldn't be any more crime. And the Mafia could handle the killing at a cheaper rate per person than a slaughter costs us in Vietnam. Beautiful.

You ordinary newspaper readers are in tough luck. You don't get to read these incredible letters because they are never signed and no editor publishes a letter if he doesn't know who wrote it. Which is the one thing that puzzles me most about the haters:

If they have sense enough to be ashamed, how come they don't have sense enough to think the cricks out of their twisted minds?

A WORD FITLY SPOKEN

Please Pass The Nikoban

My boss peered across the desk at me and between hacking coughs said, "Jim, I've quit smokin' again." He gulped another Nikoban tablet and asked if I thought I could do something humorous about cigarettes.

That's tantamount to putting sugar on poison or rubbing salt on your best friend's wound, but I allowed as how I would give it a try. He exploded with another air-shattering cough and I figured it might be his last request so I gladly said yes.

How can you be funny about cancer sticks? Humor about fags borders on the macabre. It reminds me of the story in the paper recently concerning the man in a small Pennsylvania town who hasn't missed a funeral in over nine years. The morticians got together and gave him a plaque. He said he was glad he could spend his life at funerals and as I recall he had attended thousands in that time.

Some people are really interested in funny things. A man said he was going to have his dog be his "best man" at his wedding. Honest! That's what the paper said. Can't you imagine his bride having her cat be her maid of honor?

While he was chasing his wife around the house, the dog would be on the heels of the cat.

Some gal just came dancing through the office singing, "Me and my Winston's," and she held up a Lark pack with trembling hand.

My boss coughed in disgust. Mark Twain was just like my cigarette-shedding buddy across the desk. He said: "It's not hard to quit smoking, I've done it hundreds of times!"

A preacher was hitch-hiking one day along a main highway and a sailor stopped his car and gave the minister a ride. After a short ride, the sea-going fellow lit up a cigarette and puffed merrily away. This caused grave concern to the preacher who turned and said, "Son, if God wanted you to smoke, He'd have given you a smokestack."

The sailor nodded slowly and replied, "And if God had wanted you to ride, He'd have given you wheels!"

My boss coughed again and this time it lasted a silly millimeter longer.

I think my boss is succeeding! He just went prancing through here singing, "Me and my Ni-o-bans!"

When I took my first long, deep drag I almost died of smoke inhalation. "Boy, this is great," I sputtered through the haze, trying to impress my younger companion who had been weaned on fags.

When I was 18 years old I wanted to learn to smoke. I wanted to be "one of the gang" I guess, so I had my 16-year-old sidekick introduce me to the weed. We drove off on some dark lonely sidestreets at night, far from any prying eyes.

I took the white three-inch-roll of tobacco in my hand and struck a match.

That was the only time I ever had a cigarette in my mouth. And I've wondered: If our body fights tobacco so hard when we first try to use it, why don't we have enough sense to stop before the drug-like substance chains us in its grasp?

My boss just passed through again, still showing signs of victory as he sang softly, "I'd walk a mile for a Nikoban!" I'm glad I don't smoke. The only time I've puffed in my life since that learning experience was when I tried to run around the block-or bent over to touch the floor. You know, the older I get, the lower the floor gets each year.

Yesterday, some birds got between the roof of our office and the ceiling. We could hear the birds fluttering around up there above our heads chirping away. And I thought how to wrap up this column.

As I thought about my boss and others kicking the smoking habit, the birds chirped gaily away. I'm dying to say, "Smoking is for the birds," but that is such an old, corn cliche.

So I decided to say, "A bird in the hand is better than a cigarette in the hand."

By Joyce Hagelthorn

"Humph," he muttered.

"Wake up," I said in my sexiest voice.

That didn't register, but I didn't get my feelings too hurt, because now I knew what could get to him...the big, fat, red, juicy apple clenched in my fist.

He opened one eye and swerved it up at me.

"What d'ya want?" he slurred.

I leaned towards him...close to his ear.

"Just call me Eve," I murmured, and took a big chunk out of the middle of that apple.

Astrology sure is here to stay and the author of that love horoscope was absolutely right.

The way this Taurean bit into that big, fat, juicy, red apple DID sent a man mad...and as soon as I can talk again I'll tell you more about it. Just now, you'll have to excuse me while I go get another ice-bag.

We Must Give to America

By Dick McKnight

Americans have hidden a lot of things under the national rug.

First there was the practice of slavery. It took a Civil War and untold destruction of lives and property for us to be able to forget that we had ever let it happen.

Then there was the day when big business was finally conquered by the government, as representative of the people. People like Teddy Roosevelt can make us forget that big business was ever allowed to subject millions of working class people who had no protection.

Then there was women's suffrage. Who can believe that once we never allowed women to vote, to speak in the public forum, or to guide their own lives? It's appalling, but women's suffrage is only 44 years old.

In the 1920's there was prohibition. And who didn't have a drink somewhere, sometime during those years? It was certainly the original breakdown of law and order, when society ignored the law of the land in one mans act of lawlessness. Right?

Later we saw the nation plunged into a depression, and it took a nearly wholesale cleaning of the Congressional houses to get the economic ball rolling on behalf of the populace. And then it was like pulling teeth to get the laws passed to govern business and protect unions so that such a depression could never happen again.

Who can remember the days of World War II when we imprisoned thousands of Japanese-Americans, some of them American citizens, in prisoner-of-war camps, while millions of German-Americans walked the streets without a worry just like the rest of us. Those Japanese-Americans provided many sons to serve the country during that time, even while they were kept imprisoned.

After World War II we had the McCarthy era, when a man armed with vague charges and innuendoes was allowed to capture the popular mind of America and turn us into slaves of our own fears.

Lately we've had other shames. Like the civil rights movement, which we "allowed" to go so far before we began pulling our heads back into our shells. We've acted as if we were granting some favor, not recognizing God-given rights that we have no power to deny.

Then we hid behind "law and order" (which nobody could possibly be against) as a reason for denying human rights.

If our thinking is currently correct, we believe that because students on some campuses are rioting, we are forgiven if we ignore the fact that there are things wrong with society that ought to be changed. The president of City College of New York put it well when he resigned following a riot when he said that what distressed him most was that the actions of these students had given society an excuse to ignore the need for change.

Billy Graham, who one would think embodies our Christian ideals, said there was going to be a backlash against students causes if students continue to riot. He was warning the students, however, not warning those who might take part in the backlash.

Why bring all of this up? Why drag out all our old, dead miseries when we've conquered most of them with American honesty and ingenuity? Why not say something good?

I'll tell you why not.

America is capable of so much give and take. It can handle problems that have staggered and crushed many a nation before us. We believe in our ability to solve problems, and in the ability of America, as an ideal, to win over any foe. America is great because it overcame everyone of those shames we listed, but let those shames humble us and let us remember them as lessons well learned.

We can do it. But each of us had to be just as big as America itself, with the breadth of spirit to give and keep giving.

When we get married, one of the first things we learn is that you've gotta give. You give and give and give until it really hurts sometimes, but you don't give up or throw your husband or wife out in the street because they keep needing you.

Every one of us is married to America. We've got to give a lot more to it than we have been if we want to keep the family together.

TO THE EDITOR:

Some comments on the disastrous May 5th meeting of Huron citizens interested in developing curriculum for the new Hannan Road Elementary School - the meeting that went wrong!

The meeting was stacked. This was immediately obvious to any local citizen entering the room. The imported "group manipulators" led all lambs, even the venturesome ones who dared try to think for themselves, to tables generously spotted with outside "manipulators."

Who were these outside "manipulators?" Where did they come from? Why were they here? Do "hero worshippers" from Saugatuck or Kalamazoo, residents of Grosse Ile or Riverview have the right to tell tax-payers of Huron Township what we want in our schools?

***
ROUND ONE of the disastrous meeting found us in round table groups of five. This was pleasant enough for us, the only outsider at our table being a woman from Grosse Ile. The discussion was pleasant, worthwhile, and moderate.

Round Two found ten people at each table. Not so pleasant! Here we found we were to "rubber stamp" a pre-determined outcome of the meeting. This is when we left!

If a citizen spoke up, I say "Bravo." And how about three cheers!

It is odd that our superintendent is worried about one teacher applicant when the "whole state of Michigan is watch-Huron." We've been told we have 500 applicants (700 at another meeting). Or was the speaker at the board meeting simply "carried away" and was the figure actually closer to 273 at the time? There is no reason for our superintendent to worry about this one teacher applicant when this year in Michigan there are 7,000 teachers looking for work!

With the whole state of Michigan watching the Huron Schools, perhaps the residents and tax-paying citizens of Huron Schools, perhaps the residents and tax-paying citizens of Huron School District should start watching too!

The issue is integrity nothing more, nothing less!

"Orchids to the Associated Newspapers" Because of the tremendous coverage all of your newspapers gave our recent White Cane Drive all area Clubs report their biggest sale. Yet we are grateful to the schools too for their assistance during White Cane education week.

People in this area have been most understanding and generous with their Local Lions Club projects. There is one thing they can be sure of (every penny goes to the Cause of helping the blind) and there are 14,000 blind people in Michigan dependent upon the White Cane.

Again let me emphasize how much Lions Club in the whole area appreciate your fine cooperation.

We object to the so-called "smutty and obscene" literature as much as any other decent parents do but we also believe that all the guilt should not be given to David Vought. ### A SOLDIERS LAMENT

Well, here I am again tonight,
In a fox hole, prepared to fight
This killing of people in a needless war,
While some politician adds up the score.

To me, I'm a person, of soul, body and heart,
To them I'm a robot they need only start.
I work all day and fight at night
The time comes to eat when they say it's alright

There's no moon tonight; the stars are gone too
You can't see Charlie, but he can see you
Then suddenly it happens, with no warning or care
Guns fire loudly. There's a tear in your eye
You know that you hate it. There's a tear in your eye
Your weapon reacts causing someone to die
Your buddy gets hit and yells out in pain
You're sick to the stomach—each night it's the same

As quick as it started, the firing ends.
You look all about you and count up your friends.
A couple are missing. You pray they pull through Why weren't they lucky and unhurt like you?

With blood on my hands, I have bad dreams at night
Of men I killed in a needless gunfight
Oh Lord! Please tell me: what was my sin
That you keep me alive to kill once again.

The get-together, which will give Haggerty families an opportunity to get acquainted, will be a pot-luck affair. Each group is to bring its own table service and a dish to pass. Free pop and

An added attraction for the younger set will be a couple of clowns who promise to entertain and have a few surprises.

Judy Tomlinson Is May 2 Bride Of Ronald Westlake

St. Ursula's Catholic Church, Ypsilanti, was the setting Friday, May 2, for the evening ceremony which united Judy Tomlinson and Ronald Westlake in holy matrimony. Some 200 guests were assembled for the double ring vows at seven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Tomlinson, of 50810 Mott Road, Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Westlake, of 345 S. Prospect, Ypsilanti, are parents of the young couple.

ESCORTED UP the aisle by her father, Judy appeared in a creation of satin and lace. Styled with a bouffant skirt enhanced with brocade lace, the dress was in toe-touching length. The fitted bodice featured a Sabrina neckline, wristpoint sleeves and a train at the shoulders which drifted to cathedral length.

Her waist length veil of silk illusion was secured by a soft rose headpiece accented with sequins and she carried a heartshaped bouquet of white carnations and yellow and blue tea roses.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Danny Ling, of Wayne, held an arrangement of yellow carnations to harmonize with her yellow frock. The formal gown was fashioned along empire lines with an A-line skirt, long, chiffon sleeves, and white brocade enhancing the waistline.

The bridal coterie included Theresa Powers and Carolyn Gray, both of Belleville; and Gloria Rachoza, of Ypsilanti, the bridegroom's cousin. Their ensembles were identical to Mrs. Ling's but were in turquoise with matching flowers. All wore bow headgear with brief veils to match their frocks.

LARRY THIEDE, of Ypsilanti, was asked to be best man. Ushers were Tom Tomlinson, of Belleville, the bride's brother; and Bruce Cable and Edward Mayberry, both of Ypsilanti.

Guests gathered at the U.A.W. Local 849 Hall for the reception which followed. Mrs. Tomlinson greeted friends and relatives in a blue crepe dress with matching accessories while the bridegroom's mother was in blue lace with blue accessories. Both added pink and white carnations to their ensembles.

The newlyweds spent a week-long honeymoon at Jacksonville Beach, Florida. Judy graduated from Belleville High School in 1968 and is now employed as a secretary in the psychology department at the University of Michigan. Her husband, a 1967 Willow Run High graduate, attended Washtenaw Community College, and is now serving with the U.S. Navy.

Double Ring Vows Read At St. Mary's

Double ring vows were exchanged between Joanne Grajek and Ron Smith in an April ceremony at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Wayne. Father Raymond Sayers presided at the seven o'clock nuptials which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grajek, of 8310 Hannan Road, Wayne, and the son of James Smith, of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Harriet Smith, of Belleville.

Presented in marriage by her father, Joanne appeared in a floor-length fashion of silk organza trimmed with lace. The bodice was styled with elbow-length sleeves and back interest was created with an eight-foot train which cascaded from the shoulders.

Her scalloped three-tiered veil was cut in waist length and her colonial bouquet was comprised of pink, yellow, blue, green, and white daisies encircled by baby's breath.

PRECEDING THE bride to the altar were her sister, Janice Grajek, as maid of honor; and bridesmaids Nancy Krupa, of Oak Park; Cheryl Krakowiak, of Belleville; and Susan Hammond, of Wayne, the bridegroom's cousin.

The quartet wore rainbow hues of mint green, pink, yellow, and blue, respectively, and carried parasols to match. Their bow headpieces were also in matching tones.

The four little flowergirls were Susie and Julie Grajek, cousins of the bride, in green and yellow; and Cherie and Lisa Smith, sisters of the bridegroom, in pink and blue frocks, identical to the senior attendants'. The baskets they carried were filled with daisies.

Jesse Smith was his brother's best man and ushers were Mack Pinson, of Belleville; Henry Grajek, the bride's brother; and Barry Perich, of San Antonio, Texas.

SOME 450 GUESTS were greeted at the Romulus Progressive Hall by Mrs. Grajek wearing a blue shantung coat-dress ensemble and corsage of yellow roses. White roses were pinned to the blue dress which Mrs. Smith chose for her son's wedding.

Following a three-day trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, New York, the young couple traveled to Fort Carson, Colorado Springs, Colorado, where Ron is serving with the U.S. Army and where the newlyweds will live until November 5.

Both Ron and Joanne are Belleville High School graduates. She attended Western Michigan University for two years prior to her marriage.

Military Wedding At St. Paul's Unites Couple

In a full military wedding at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Boston, Patricia Ann Wilson became the bride of Richard Lewis Burnette, USN. Candlelight formed the setting for their double ring vows exchanged before the Rev. Daniel Richert at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Pat, escorted to the sanctuary by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan E. Wilson, of 46262 Chatsworth, Belleville. Carrying an arrangement of carnations, orchids and greenery, she was gownned in white peau de soie styled in formal length with an empire waistline, wristpoint sleeves, and a cathedral-length train.

Her illusion veil drifted to shoulder length from a headpiece of pearls and rhinestones.

ROSE COLORED chiffon gowns were worn by the three bridal attendants: Cheryl Wilson, who was her sister's honor maid; Bette Oelke, of Belleville, and Mrs. Vera Dople, the bridegroom's sister, also from Belleville.

Styling details on their dresses included high-rise waistlines and white daisy trim on the bodices. Their headgear was fashioned in matching tones and their bouquets contained rose and white carnations with ribbon streamers.

Three-year old Shelley Dople and four-year old Kelley Burnette, nieces of the bridegroom, wore little frocks to match the senior attendants' and carried white satin pillows.

THE BRIDEGROOM, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie I. Burnette, of 661 Nash, Ypsilanti, was assisted by his brother, David Burnette, USN, from El Centro, California, as best man. Ushers were Don Moore, USN, formerly of Belleville; and Jim Shaver, USN, of Caro.

A pink brocade dress with companion coat was selected by Mrs. Wilson for her

St. Anthony's Scene Of Moon-Storemski Vows

Vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and lilac and blue carnations graced the altar of St. Anthony's Catholic Church Saturday, May 17, as Nancy J. Storemski walked up the aisle with her father to become the bride of Gary E. Moon.

The Rev. J.B. Rose presided at the double ring nuptials at six o'clock in the evening with some 300 friends and relatives present.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict J. Storemski, Sr., of 21411 Karr Road, Belleville. Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jarold Moon, of Buckley, Michigan.

FOR HER wedding day, Nancy donned a white fashion reminiscent of the ante bellum era with wide tiers of ruffles forming the hooped skirt which terminated in a chapel sweep. Chantilly lace was also used to form the fitted bodice which featured a square neckline and traditional, long tapered sleeves.

A cluster of lace petals edged in seed pearling clasped her three-tiered veil of silk illusion and she held cascading white carnations centered with four yellow roses.

Honor attendant was the bride's best friend, Kathy Krystyniak, of Belleville, who carried a single long-stemmed carnation tinted in lilac to match her gown. Her A-line frock of bonded crepe was designed with princess lace seaming and short sleeves trimmed in matching lace.

Wearing identical blue ensembles were Janice L. Storemski, sister-in-law of the bride, from Belleville; Karen Guthrie, sister of the bridegroom, from Mesick, Michigan; and junior attendants, Pamela Storemski, sister of the bride, and Pamela Boysen, of Ypsilanti, niece of the bridegroom. The latter two carried nosegays of miniature blue carnations while the others had long-stemmed blue carnations to hold.

All the gowns were made by the bride and her attendants.

A Belleville High School graduate of 1967, Pat later graduated from the Ann Arbor Practical Nurses Education Center. She was formerly employed at Beyer Hospital.

Her husband, a 1966 Belleville High alumnus, is serving with the U.S. Navy and is scheduled for a stint in Vietnam.

EIGHT-YEAR OLD Diana Gillespie, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl in a miniature outfit to match the honor attendant's. The basket she held was filled with lilac and blue carnations and white mums.

Kevin Megyerie, the bride's seven-year old cousin, carried out the role of ringbearer.

The bridegroom asked the bride's brother, Benedict J. Storemski, Jr. to serve as best man. The corps of ushers included Gerald Chie, of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bride; Paul Guthrie, of Mesick, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Joey Megyeri, of Belleville, cousin of the bride; and Stewart Boysen, of Ypsilanti, nephew of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Storemski chose for her daughter's wedding a light blue dress with matching lace jacket and blue accessories. A navy blue jacket-dress was worn by the bridegroom's mother and both added carnation corsages to match their frocks.

The P.N.A. Hall was reserved for the reception which followed. Among those attending were Mrs. Violet Cotton, of Mesick, and Mrs. Frances Storemski, of Detroit, grandmothers of the bridal couple.

The newlyweds honeymooned at Louisville, Kentucky and El Paso, Texas prior to Gary's return to Fort Bliss where he is serving his final 10 months of service with the U.S. Army.

Nancy graduated in 1967 from Belleville High School and prior to her wedding was employed by the University of Michigan at its Willow Run Laboratories. Her husband graduated from Buckley High School and was employed by Motor State before enlisting.

PASTEL STREAMERS and decorations added a festive touch to the recreation room as Crystal Redlin welcomed guests to her home on Haggerty Road Sunday afternoon. Some 35 friends and relatives were also greeted by Marie Wilson and Marge Theis who were co-hostesses with Crystal for a stork shower honoring Mrs. Norman Fry (the former Elleen Kolver.)

A WINNER

LITTLE DID Eileen Renton suspect as she visited the Richland Fur Store, in Blissfield, recently that she would have a wardrobe made richer by a $50 gift certificate. But that's exactly what occurred this past week as she received notification of her good fortune.

It seems that a group of local ladies--nine in all--decided to treat themselves to lunch and a fashion show at the Hathaway House, in Blissfield, on a certain Wednesday afternoon. They later paid a visit to the Richland Fur Store, sponsors of the style parade, where they signed tickets for the shop's regular drawing. And--lo, and behold, a winner from Belleville.

Losing out, but delighted with Eileen's good luck, were Charlotte Budd, Lillian Partridge, Jean Schweigert, Elsie Robson, Eula Haft, Dorothy Curtis, Jean Draper, and Addie Dolph.

Charm, Beauty Clinic Helps Eloise Patients Go Home

HELPING TO REBUILD SELF-CONFIDENCE—Occupational Therapist Mrs. Kleah Jacques (left) and volunteer worker Mrs. Rose Mary Stanley watch as Fashion Two-Twenty demonstrator applies make-up to help rebuild patient's confidence. The new "Beauty and Charm" clinic is proving to be big success and other hospitals may undertake a similar project.

By Jim Bradley

How would you feel coming back out into the community after spending weeks or months in the psychiatric department of a hospital? Would you be fearful and apprehensive?

These are questions the Wayne County General Hospital is attempting to solve with a positive new approach in helping patients build self-confidence leading to their re-entry into the community.

Dr. S. B. Jenkins, director of Psychiatric Division of Wayne County General Hospital, and his trained staff have instituted a "Charm and Beauty" clinic under the direction of Registered Occupational Therapist Mrs. Kleah Jacques designed to bolster the confidence of women returning to society.

The personal hygiene program involves 14 patients and has been effective according to those involved. Helping Mrs. Jacques is volunteer Mrs. Rose Mary Stanley of Southgate who donates one day a week to help these women re-enter the community.

The program has been in operation for approximately two months and has made great strides, according to Mrs. Jacques. "Some patients have acute depression, hysteria and the inability to cope with everyday life, but through this clinic many are gaining an air of confidence, self-esteem and the feeling of femininity," Mrs. Jacques explained.

Just what takes place at this clinic and how did it get started? "Well, actually we wanted to start it about two years ago, but were not able to. Now that we have the go-ahead, we had the patients suggest questions they would like answered," Mrs. Jacques said.

"Many wanted to know how to go about applying for a job. We teach them etiquette, how to dress correctly how to apply make-up and personal hygiene. We help them reaffirm their feminine graces," she explained.

Mrs. Jacques gave Mrs. Stanley a big verbal pat on the back. "We think it's just great that she donates her time to come and work with the patients. And she's the one responsible for getting the folks from Fashion Two-Twenty Cosmetics to come out with the materials to demonstrate and help the women here."

"This clinic is just a tiny part of our entire program," she pointed out. "Staff members take the patients shopping, bowling, on picnics and even to the zoo. And we also use a lot of the community facilities."

"One woman who was recently discharged stopped by and said to me: 'Thank you for all the things you did for me and for making my stay bearable.' This is the greatest thanks we can receive."

Local Teams Compete In Car-Fixing Contest

"Gentlemen, start your engines—if you can."

This parody of the famous phrase which begins the annual Indianapolis 500 race will greet the eager competitors at the opening of the annual southeastern Michigan Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest at 2:00 P.M., Friday, May 23, at Wonderland Shopping Center in Livonia.

Three teams representing schools in Western Wayne will compete in this event in which students find and fix several malfunctions deliberately hidden in new cars by experts. This mechanical challenge counts as 70 percent of a team's final score. A written examination comprises the remaining 30 percent.

Three area car dealerships are sponsoring teams for this year's contest. John Barber, Inc., of Belleville is sponsoring Romulus Senior High School and Huron High School. Feister Auto Sales, Westland, is backing John Glenn High School, and Bill

Cochrane, Garden City, sponsors Garden City East High School.

The top team in this and some 100 other local contests receives all-expense paid trips to Indianapolis and the National Trouble Shooting Finals, June 16, 17 and 18. There they will compete for a total of $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies, tools, practice engines, transmissions and automotive shop equipment for their schools.

The winning team in the local contest will receive a trophy for their school and prizes for themselves.

Land Fill

Belleville — A land fill project in Lower Huron Park received the approval of the Van Buren Township Board, Edward C. Stoelton, supervisor, announced.

The course of the Huron River that goes through the Lower Huron Park was changed and altered to fit in with the design of the park, Stoelton stated.

This change and alteration left some low spots that required fill-in. The Board permitted the land fill request by park authority at no cost to the taxpayers.

Some 75,000 square yards of land fill consisting of clay and top soil will be used.

The dirt will come from the sewer project now underway in Huron Township, Stoelton said.

Congressmen Say Surtax Must Await Tax Reform

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman William D. Ford (Democrat-15th District) has joined with 53 of his colleagues in calling for delay in extension of the income tax surcharge until Congress takes action on tax reform.

In a letter to Congressman Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, the 54 representatives noted that President Nixon had requested a continuation of the surtax for one year, beginning July 1, to raise an additional $9 billion in Federal revenues.

"The need for extension of the surtax is directly affected by the amount of revenues that will be raised by plugging loopholes and by the amount of expenditures that will be saved by budgetary action by the Congress, particularly in the military area," the letter stated.

"In the likely event that loophole-plugging and budgetary action will not have been accomplished by June 30, we recommend that action on the one-year extension of the surtax be deferred for the few weeks necessary for this to take place."

The congressmen declared that it would be preferable to continue the surtax on a temporary basis for a few weeks, rather than "lock in" the surtax for another year before the effects of tax reform and budget cuts could be determined.

Ford voted against enactment of the 10-percent surtax last year, declaring that it would not be necessary if income-tax loopholes could be closed. He and other members of Congress have joined this year in co-sponsoring legislation to close 13 of the most glaring loopholes, which enable wealthy persons and large corporations to avoid paying a fair share of the tax burden.

depletion allowance, capital gains untaxed at death, unlimited charitable deductions, special treatment for stock options, multiple corporations, hobby farms, accelerated depreciation on real estate speculation, conglomerate mergers, and payment of estate taxes by par value of government bonds. Ford said:

"The surtax has struck most heavily at lower and middle-income families, who are already staggering under the increasing burden of local and state taxes. It is absolutely imperative that we move now to shift more of this load to the high-income groups."

Tax Petition Drive Kicks Off Saturday

Three Democratic state representatives have announced a program marking the kick-off of a petition drive for a new fair-share program of tax reform and school financing. Representatives Edward E. Mahalak (Romulus), Vincent J. Pettipren (Westland) and James Tierney (Garden City) invited all citizens to attend the kick-off program to be held at Wayne Memorial High School on Saturday, May 24, at 10 a.m.

Pettipren chairman of the petition drive, states the fair share plan "provides for the much needed tax reform which would enable us to finance our schools adequately and, perhaps just as significantly, more fairly than ever before."

The basic formula involved in the plan is a shift away from the property tax to the income tax as the basic source of revenue for the educational program of the State. Rep. Mahalak pointed out that this plan would

"replace a regressive and wholly antiquated property tax with an equitable tax designed to tax corporations as well as individuals according to their income."

All three indicated that the petition drive is designed to enable the people to express their will on the question of taxation.

Rep. Tierney emphasized that "the senior citizen and the low-income property owners are at long last being given an opportunity to change a system of taxation that has become intolerable to them."

If the drive is successful, a constitutional amendment will be submitted to the electorate in November of 1970 mandating fundamental changes in the tax structure.

The kick-off will be attended by Mahalak, Pettipren and Tierney who encouraged the public to attend. The State Junior Chamber of Commerce and other organizations have already endorsed the plan.

The program will include an explanation of the Fair Share Tax by Rep. Roy Smith (R) of Ypsilanti, the originator of the amendment.

Student Council Hold Orientation Session

BELLEVILLE—Thursday, May 15, marked the opening of the orientation of Belleville Junior High students who will enter the High School next fall.

High School student Council President, Lee Schmidt and his replacement for the coming year, Miss Pam Phillips, addressed the students concerning the changes they would encounter.

Following a presentation by Miss Phillips, both students engaged in an open question and answer period with the Junior High Students.

This assembly was the opening step in preparation for the visitation to the high school which the students took on Monday and Tuesday May 19 and 20.

At this time students were taken in groups of 15 on a tour of the high school plant and were given an opportunity to ask further questions about the school and the various rules, regulations, and the educational process.

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

Trying To Understand

In the past five years, we've usually ripped guys apart who accepted coaching positions in this area, stuck around for a year, then bowed out with the first leaf of summer. The "vanishing act" in most cases was a welcome sight.

And our first thoughts upon learning that Jerry Summerhays, rookie athletic director at Robichaud, had resigned was: "Get him."

He didn't give the kids a chance. Didn't give the school or community a chance. He came like the most of them, stayed awhile and moved on without even trying to understand the problems of that controversial Dearborn Heights High School.

But this isn't true.

Summerhays didn't do a Dan Haskins - Upon hearing the rumors of turmoil, do an about face. You don't remember Haskins? That's the Texan with the shortest tenure in the world as a college coach - at U of D, anyway! He's the guy they hired to replace Bob Callihan but after 24 hours of "being so happy to be given the opportunity to coach at U of D," the University of Texas El Paso coach added, "my wife and kids they wouldn't be happy in Detroit, so I'm regretfully declining the offer."

And Jim Harding to the rescue.

Summerhays, in many ways, was what Robichaud needed. Energetic, the 24-year-old coach, the youngest Class A AD in the state, hurriedly went about reorganizing the sports program.

He had good men - Jim Hadley, Bernie Ingle and Owen Sudman to work with and he also had a good tradition, built by Keith Emerson, to perpetuate.

But Jerry soon became disillusioned. The millage failed. And there is little hope that the electorate will change its mind on June 9 when the schools again are asking for 10 mills for operational purposes.

And to be closer to the community and the people, Summerhays moved his family into Dearborn Heights.

'Death of a Hired Man'

He worked long hours and was devoted to his work. The kids accepted him but he couldn't give them what he knew they needed.

He cited domestic and financial pressures as reasons for leaving and this is as far as we could get him to commit himself as to what is going on behind those locked doors in the Westwood School District (nee District 8).

No skeletons would he uncover for us.

Garrade Pettus is beginning his prep track career while Larry Smith is winding it up-but both athletes had one thing in common on Saturday. They strolled away from the Regionals at Belleville with gold medals.

Pettus, a sophomore, however, had the edge. He won two firsts while Smith, of Romulus, missed his chance at the double victory when he fell in the high hurdles, his specialty.

"He was leading the field," said coach Ed Baum, "when his foot caught one of the hurdles. He went down. But he'll be ready for the State Finals on Saturday."

Smith won the lows in 19.8.

Twin Valley Story Repeat of History

Historians caution us that history has a peculiar way of repeating. And it won't take too much to convince Romulus' Lowell Johnson the verity of that adage.

Ahead in the Twin Valley title race last week, the Eagles slipped a half-game behind Ecorse when Hamtramck rallied for six runs to trim them 6-3.

As in the championship battle last year, Romulus must again get by the Raiders in order to salvage their share of the crown. The other half is Ecorse's possession.

Lee Ballard held Hamtramck scoreless until that sixth when a grand slam home run by Tom Winbush proved to be his and the Eagles' downfall. The loss was the second in eight outings. Ecorse has a 6-1 record going into this week's competition.

Ballard fanned 12, walked one and allowed seven hits.

Romulus equalled the Cosmos' hit production with Ray Horn, who's batting .500, collected three for four-a double and a pair of singles. Teammates Frank Mayeran, who had 2 for 3, and Paul Seestedt, who clobbered his fifth home run in the fifth, getting their share of hits.

In the opening game of the series, Rick Paglia stayed unbeaten in the league as he scattered four Cosmos hits in picking up his fourth personal triumph, 10-2.

Romulus hammered three home runs in the opening frame with Horn starting it off. Seestedt followed with another solo blast and then, Leon Janes blasted his first of two round-trippers for the day.

Horn wound up with three for four and Janes bagged 4 RBIs, including a double and two HRs.

The Eagles settled the issue in the fifth when they

Belleville track coach Marland Howard used superlatives to describe his young athlete's performance.

"He's great and could be one of the greatest ever to graduate from this school," said the Tiger coach. "We're hoping for the best at the state meet."

Pettus soared 22 feet, 10 1/4 inches to claim top honors in the broad jump and he set a new school record when he cleared 6 foot 3 inches to win the gold medal for the high jump.

Teammate Larry Merritt missed his chance to advance to MSU in the pole vault when he wound up in fourth with a 12 foot- 6 inches effort.

Also qualifying for Romulus was Warren Bonam who leaped 21 feet, 5 inches in the broad jump to place third. Also in third was the Eagle speed relay team of Roy Williams, Johnny Wilson, Warren Bonam and Ed Thompson, who turned up in 1:31.7.

Wilson received a fourth place ribbon for his 50.4 performance in the 440.

Both Romulus and Belleville are tuning up for the State Finals, to be held at MSU on Saturday, with league competition. The Eagles travel to Ecorse to decide upon a Twin Valley Conference champ while the Tigers host some of the best trackmen in the state today for the Suburban Six Conference championship.

Among "6" stars who will compete are John Morrison, rated the top high school hurdler in the United States this season. The Redford Union star has shattered all records in the low and highs. Miler Dave Junk will also be on hand. He's run a 4:18 for the event.

In dual meet competition last week, Belleville fell 83-35 to Livonia Bentley. Pettus was first in the long jump (22 feet, 1 inch) and placed second in the high and low hurdles. Merritt won the pole vault with a 12 feet, 6 inch effort.

Romulus trackmen trimmed Inkster 60-52 1/2 in their tune-up.

No Hitter for Hurons Edmonds

Some of that frustration of losing wore off last week for Huron and pitcher Ron Edmonds who turned in a brilliant no-hitter for the Chiefs in shutting out league rival, Tecumseh, 6-0.

Edmonds was in perfect control on the mound as well as at the plate as he struck out eight and walked three in chalking up his second decision of the current campaign.

He also teamed up with Al Michling to provide the Chiefs with four of their six hits.

In the second inning, Edmonds drove in three runs with a bases-loaded double and he singled in the third for another tally. The Huron hurler finished with a perfect 2 for 2, including two walks, single and a double.

Michling also went two for three and accounted for two RBIs.

But that was about the only "sunlight" in what was to be a very dreary week for coach Ron Smith. Smith's boys lost their three other encounters.

They fell 16-1 in the week opener to Dearborn Heights' Annapolis with Craig Adaline sustaining the loss. The Chiefs also were routed by Blissfield 7-1 and were nipped in the eighth by Carlson 7-6 in a game abbreviated because of the lack of Huron players.

Smith had used up all of his reserve power and had no one to turn to when one of his players was ejected from the game.

In the Blissfield game, Adaline was again tagged with the loss as he allowed six hits and six of the seven runs.

Guess Who's on First?

If you're a Suburban Six Conference baseball fan and you're wondering, "Who's on first?", then welcome to the fan club. Most of the coaches in the league do NOT know who's leading the league, going into the final week of play.

One thing for sure, Belleville is scheduled to clash with Redford Union on Thursday - weather permitting-in the Tigers last scheduled league game of the season.

Going into the final week, Coach Vitold Kaminski's team will brandish a 5-3 record. And that record was good enough for a tie for second.

Allen Park and Bentley, with two losses each, are apparently tied for first but both have had a couple of rained out games to make up.

Belleville played "two games" on Friday but received credit for one victory as the Tigers went into extra innings and pulled out a 4-3 victory in the 14th over nonleague rival Wayne Memorial.

Wayne scored twice in the top of the third to grab a 2-1 lead but Belleville tied it up in the fifth and that's the way the scored stood until the ninth when the Zebras broke the deadlock again. The Tigers refused to give up and tied the score in their half of the inning.

In the 14th, singles by Gary Gentle, Ed Gielinski, Norm Harrington broke the game up, handing reliefer Roger Housley the defeat while John Yocum got credit for the victory.

In the 14th, singles by Gary Gentle, Ed Gielinski, Norm Harrington broke the game up, handing reliefer Roger Housley the defeat while John Yocum got credit for the victory.

Yocum relieved Mike Minthorn in the sixth.

Gentle, Gielinski and Harrington each collected two hits in Belleville's 10-hit assault.

The Tigers also had the satisfaction of cutting

Northville Runs Next Wednesday

Northville Downs will open its 26th year of harness racing next Wednesday night (May 28).

John J. Carlo, executive manager, looks forward to another record breaking campaign which will continue for 54 nights through Tuesday, July 29.

Last year's silver anniversary year saw 10 wagering marks go by the boards and a new record nightly average of $310,807.

This year the 15th renewal of the Michigan Trotting Derby will be held Wednesday, July 2, with an estimated purse of $18,000 added.

Also, the 19th renewal of the Michigan Trotting Derby will be held Wednesday, July 16, with an estimated purse of $20,000 added.

The format of the 10 races nightly will remain the same with daily double wagering on the first and second race. Post-time will continue at 8:30 p.m.

previously undefeated Livonia Bentley's winning streak. Bruce Bara pitched Belleville to a 4-1 victory over the Bulldogs, striking out 12 and walking two en route to his fifth personal triumph.

Three home runs, one a lead-off, first inning round-tripper by Bara, highlighted the Tiger assault on losing pitcher Don Ockerman. Gentle also had a solo blast in the sixth while Bill Lambert hammered his four-bagger in the sixth with one aboard.

Dick Wenzel hurled a three-hitter in sparking Belleville to a 5-0 shutout of Trenton. The Tigers put the game away in the second inning with a single by Lambert, Dennis Billings also rapped a run-scoring base hit which was followed by Paul Kos' single to left-center.

Bara walked to load the bases, then Paul Munn connected for a two run single.

Wenzel, who struck out 11 and walked two, received runs in the fifth and sixth innings. One of those was a home run by Gielinski, who led off the fifth.

Although they out-hit Allen Park, the Tigers got off on the wrong foot against Allen Park and lost 3-1. Yocum, tagged with the loss, saw three unearned runs in the third ruin his bid for the victory.

Mississippi spent nearly $300,000 in 1968 just to collect litter from beside highways.

Summerhays Resigns as Athletic Head

Huron Heads for League Meet

Clark, Speed Relay Team Place 1st at Mason Meet

Citing "mounting financial tensions within the school district," Jerry Summerhays, athletic director and baseball coach, bowed out as head of athletic department and coach at Robichaud High School last week.

Summerhays, 25, the youngest Class A athletic director in the state, had been on the job only since the beginning of the current school year.

The school board accepted his resignation last week.

In his resignation, Summerhays stated, in part, "that mounting financial and domestic tensions within the school district have made me more aware of the fact that my abilities could be best served elsewhere."

Summerhays went on to say that he thought there were as many outstanding young men and women at Robichaud as in any other Class A high school in the state.

"Since I am unable to give these youngsters everything they truly need, I'm bowing out. I can only wish the Westwood School District all the educational success in the future," he said.

Summerhays, a dynamic educator who gained the respect of his students and coaches with his ceaseless drive, took over last September from Keith Emerson who resigned when many of his programs were stalled because of lack of money.

Summerhays previously coached and taught at DeWitt High School and in the Durand Public School system, near Flint. He is a graduate of Michigan State University where he earned his B.S. in Education. He also has received an M.A. in administration.

Married to Rebecca, the Summerhays has one child, Todd, 2. They make their home in Dearborn Heights.

The Board, in accepting Summerhays' resignation, will have to delay, in all probability, filling of the vacancy. The voters turned down a millage proposal recently and the schools again will go to the electorate on June 9 for 10 additional operating mills.

Without the money, the Board has expressed its serious doubts whether there will be a competitive sports program next September.

Coach Tom Grange's Chiefs split in last week's competition, losing to Tecumseh 66-52 while turning back Carlson 79-39. The Chiefs, however, were disappointed Saturday at Belleville when they failed to qualify any member of their team for the State Finals.

The closest Huron got at the Regionals to a first was from the performances of Ed Smith and their speed relay team. Smith placed fifth in the long jump with a 20 foot, 2 inch effort and the foursome of Dave Edge, Therel Dregansky, Randy Clark and Smith trotted in fifth in 1:34.7.

In the Tecumseh meet, the Chiefs salvaged five first places with both relay squads finishing first. Edge, Therel, Glenn Dregansky and anchorman Smith ran a 1:38 for the 880 while John Shlager, Mark Sheets, Dregansky and Clark finished the mile in 3:43.

Clark set a new school record in the 440 when he crossed the finish line in 53 flat.

Smith won the 220 in 23.7 while the Chiefs, led by Jeff Reeves (23 even) slammed the low hurdles. Randy Gorham and John Petri were second and third, respectively.

Reeves posted a triple victory in Huron's 79-39 rout of Carlson. He vaulted to 10 foot, 6 inches to win the pole vault and then earned the high and low hurdles.

Smith won the long jump and the 220.

Other winners included Joe Richert, in the high jump, Tipper, in the half; Clark, in the 440; and Edge, in the 100. Both relays also came in first.

Huron trackmen have "come alive." The Chiefs, aside from winning their second league meet, placed fourth at the annual Mason Invitational, bringing home a first place trophy for their efforts in the speed relay and a gold medal in the quarter-mile.

Randy Clark, undefeated in the 440 this season, proved to be a "mudder" as he ran a 55.4 for the distance to capture first place honors at Mason.

The track, "completely submerged in water", was a challenge to ten teams who showed up Saturday for the Fifth Annual Meet.

Coach Tom Grange also saw his 880-relay team foursome of Dave Edge, Therel Dregansky, Clark and Ed Smith pull up in first place with a 1:39.8 to earn their first trophy of the season.

The Chiefs collected a total of 38 points with Edge getting ribbons for his fourth place performances in the 100 and 220 yard dashes; Smith was fourth in the long jump, fifth in the 220 and sixth in the 100, while Joe Richert was fifth in the mile and John Petri, sixth, in the low hurdles.

Huron also posted their second league victory of the season 64-54 over Jefferson. The Chiefs earlier won a close one from Airport.

Clark, who recorded the only win in a 85-33 setback to Monroe Catholic Central earlier in the week, ran a 54.2 to remain unbeaten for the year.

Tipper, Mark Sheets, Dregansky and Clark combined for their best time thus far as they finished in 3:43.5.

John Shlager posted a 2:13.5 for the 880 and Richert leaped 5 foot, 8 inches for the high jump while John Reitz was the top shot-putter in the meet.

Other victories were accorded Smith, in the broad jump; and the speed relay squad of Edge, Bill Roupe, Glenn Dregansky and Smith who ran a 1:39 flat.

After racing Tecumseh last night, Huron meets Carlson on Thursday before heading for Belleville on Saturday to compete in the Regionals.

What is this mystique, then, which surrounds the high school, that stirs controversy which has led to several resignations of board members, principals and superintendents?

"You have to live with it to understand," said one coach who asked not to be identified. "An outsider would never understand our problems."

Problems? Outsider? Is Robichaud on the planet Venus?

Heck, we know there are some who, "Would not mix cream with coffee"; we know that there are racial prejudices; that the electorate is staging a revolt of its own when asked to pay the bill for education; that there is rape, robbery, injustice and indecency on earth.

We are not from the moon.

And the mixed school population at Robichaud is not either. But problems are manmade -and man can solve them!

I can understand Summerhays wanting to leave after a one year trial period; I can understand people who do not like cream with coffee; I can understand taxpayers refusing to continue to foot the bills; I can understand the riots in our schools and colleges and the "establishment" struggling to hold its ways.

But understanding is not enough - we must work to right these wrongs, or, like the 'Death of the Hired Man,' we will have "nothing to look backward to with pride, and nothing to look forward to with hope."

Edmonds and Butch Suemnick followed him to the mound.

A double by Jim Inman in the sixth which drove home Edmonds, who had singled, prevented the shutout.

Inman struck out five and walked nine in the loss to Carlson. He gave up eight hits and seven runs. Doug Hicks' bases-loaded double tied up the ball game to send it into extra innings.

Michling continued to lead the Chiefs' battery, batting a hefty .393 in league competition. Bob Gumtow, who socked 2 for 4 against Carlson, boosted his average up to .296.

Another busy week, due to last week's rains and wet ground conditions, is ahead for Coach Smith. He and his Chiefs will host Monroe Catholic Central today and, on Thursday, play a make-up game in Monroe against Bedford. On Friday, league rival Monroe Jefferson will be on hand, and Sunday, the Chiefs head for Memorial Park in Wyandotte to play their first game in the Downriver Tournament.

Monday, Huron is back home for their last scheduled game with Grosse Ile.

added five runs to pull away 10-2. In that inning, Horn got his third hit of the day and stole second. Seestedt was safe on an error and Tom Block scored Horn on a fielder's choice. Jones then clobbered his second four-bagger with two aboard.

Blaine Cappaert kept the rally alive with a single followed by base hits by Bill Worden, John Toporek and Paglia.

Romulus also defeated Willow Run earlier in the week 9-5 with Ballard getting credit for the victory. He whiffed seven and walked one.

The Eagles put it away in the fifth when they scored five runs and they added two more in the top of the seventh. Horn, Jones, Seestedt and Cappaert all collected two-for-four with Seestedt accounting for four runs batted.

Horn and Jones also kept their hitting streak alive. They have hit safely in the last six games.

John Gates Heads The Family Store

WAYNE--Mrs. Bernie Gates Quigley, owner of the W.L. Gates Furniture Store in Wayne, this week announced the appointment of John O. Gates as manager.

Gates, 52, has been with the Wayne store for the past 12 years, serving as credit manager and in sales. He makes his home at 35446 Chestnut Street in Wayne with his wife, Betty, and their two children, Elizabeth Ann, 21, and Charles, 19.

Prior to joining Gates Furniture, Gates, a nephew of the store's founder, W.L. Gates, was co-owner of the Fisher Cleaners in Wayne for 20 years. He has been a resident of the community for 32 years, coming here in the same year the furniture company was established.

In making the announcement of the appointment of Gates as store manager, Mrs. Quigley, whose first husband established the business, stated she had no intentions of selling the business and planned to continue operating under the family management. Also re-joining the firm after an absence of several years is her daughter, Mrs. Mary B. Dickerson.

The W.L. Gates Furniture Company is located at 32449 Michigan Avenue in Wayne and over the years has grown to a business of over a million dollars in sales annually.

BELLEVILLE--A request for replacement of several pieces of maintenance equipment stolen from Denton Cemetery in 1968 was approved by the Van Buren Township Board, May 13.

Miss Esther Smith, secretary and treasurer, of the Denton Cemetery Association told the Board that replacement of two self-propelled power mowers, wheelbarrows and tarps are urgently needed in the maintenance of the cemetery.

Edward Stoelton, township supervisor, estimated the replacement cost of $200 to $300. He also reported that the association is continuing its fencing project at the cemetery.

The Board also approved the replacement of worn out recreation equipment in the amount of $400 requested by the Recreation Department.

More On SIECUS

By Wayne Rickert

Lester Kirkendall, board member of SIECUS (Sex Information and Educational Council of the U.S.), who was a faculty member at the University of Oregon, says while teaching he conducted an experiment. He got seven young men to sit as a panel and discuss their actual experiences in intimate sex before an audience composed of men and women, teenage boys and girls.

Kirkendall also lectures to mixed groups and has an irresistible urge to use four letter obscenities. Dr. Mary Calderone, (executive director of SIECUS), a grandmother in her middle sixties also likes the use of four letter obscenities in her lectures to mixed groups which include teenagers.

Dr. Calderone and her fellow sexologists in SIECUS say "Children should be taught that self-gratification is normal, expected, almost universally practiced and often helpful manifestation of sex."

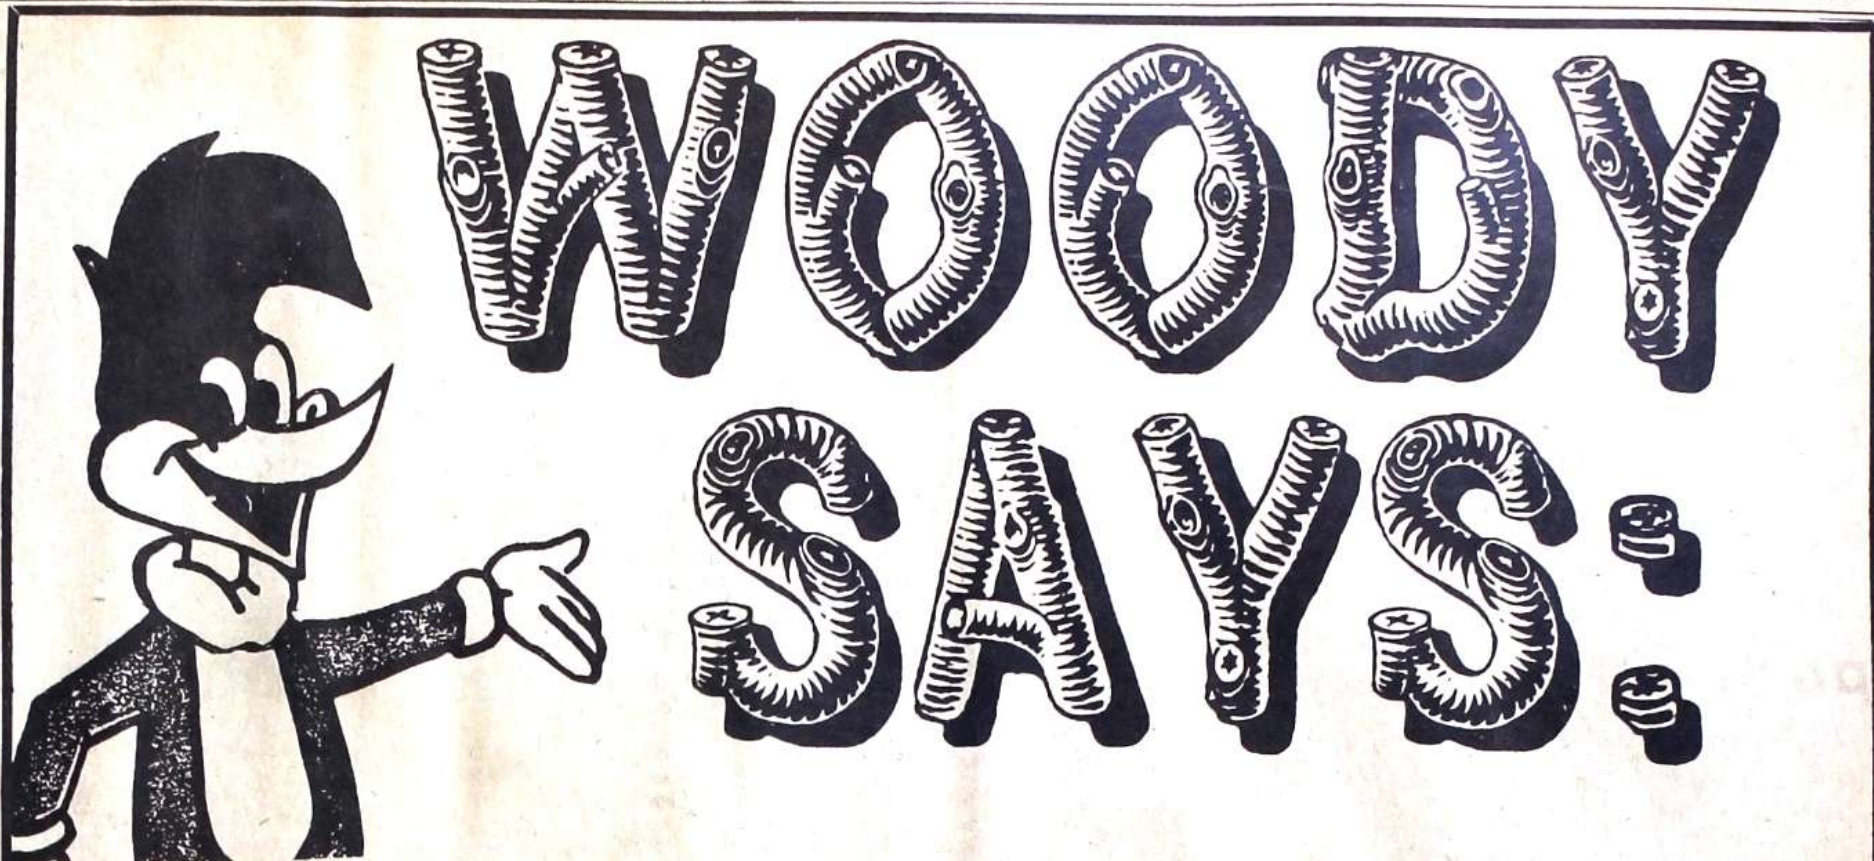

Apparently SIECUS with its vulgar, ugly, amoral sex education, will be able to cure the world's ills in a generation. Yet in Today's Health, published statistics reveal that venereal disease in the U.S. has risen by 78 per cent in the last couple of years and 123 per cent in California. California has had more SIECUS sex education than any other state.

The SIECUS programs of sex began in Orange County, Cal., in 1965. In 1966, 300 girls from Orange County had to drop out of school because of pregnancy, the youngest being 13 years old. At a home for unwed mothers in nearby Los Angeles, one out of every five was from Orange County.

In the February 27, 1969, issue of The Tennessee Eagle, an article appeared entitled, "School House Pornography." It stated: "An increasing flood of revolting crude and pornographic material, mislabeled as education by some school hierarchies continues to trigger childhood tragedies; unwed pregnancies; illegitimate births, incestuous brother-sister attacks, abortions and venereal diseases--welling from the bog created by the too-young knowing too much too soon."

Kirkendall says that anyone who opposes SIECUS programs have "hangups about sex" because they think sexual behavior should be guided by moral codes and religious prohibitions. Kirkendall says, "parents become traumatic about their youngsters engaging in sexual activity because they do not realize that premarital sexual intercourse even for children is all right provided consideration is given for the partner."

He goes on to say that SIECUS sex education is necessary in all schools. He suggests weaving sex education into regular school courses. This way it won't be singled out as unusual and threatening. He feels that SIECUS must be sneaked into the schools around the nation as an experiment. He then feels once the school systems have adopted the program, they then become committed. It is frightful to know the damage a handful of sexologists with such warped ideas could do to the next generation. Or so it seems to me....

Five Bucks Will Help You Discover More About Flying

How many times have you looked up at a passing airplane and muttered to yourself: "What a lucky guy—sure wish I could fly, but I guess I just could never learn."

That, of course, is nonsense! Like most everything else in life, you will never know if you don't try. It's just as easy as driving a car; less hazardous, too! And the cost is about the same you would pay for a set of lessons at a dancing school.

The flying world is far from being just for the businessman, the elite or the commercial enterprises. More and more average working people are stepping into the wonders of flying. Some of the finest civilian aircraft industry and local flying schools are going on an all-out program of air education for the public.

A "Discover Flying" open house will be staged at Willow Run Airport on Sunday, June 1. It will be sponsored by the McGrath Flying Service under the direction of owner Frank McGrath and General Manager Gordon Lambie. The accent will be placed to enable residents to learn more about flying and its benefit to the community.

Designed for the entire family, the event will feature displays of the famed civilian aircraft, Cessna's 1969 Learn-to-Fly Airplanes. Movies will be shown on how to fly, and airplane rides will be available. Staff licensed flight instructors will be on hand to answer questions.

"We are holding this open house in conjunction with the aviation industry's national "Discover Flying" campaign," said McGrath. "Flying is for everyone, not just a select few," he said. "Among the students currently enrolled in our flight school are residents of Belleville, Wayne, Garden City, Inkster and Westland. These flight students come from all walks of life. Some are high school and college students. We have several housewives and factory executives. Only recently we had a New Boston high school student solo on his 16th birthday, even before he had passed his drivers training course in school."

"Obtaining a pilot's license is not a mysterious affair," McGrath continued. "After learning how to control the aircraft, most students solo after only about 10 or 12 hours of dual instruction. Some solo even sooner."

A highlight of the open house is expected to be the newest model Cessna 150. This aircraft is one of the most popular for flight training and beginners. It is easy to fly and very attractive.

By special arrangement with the aircraft company, the average person will be able to take a real bite of the flying world. A special discount certificate printed here will enable any Flying World reader to start flying for $5.

On this orientation flight you will get to know the full experience of piloting a plane yourself...the free feeling of a gentle bank left or right, the power of a climb and the tranquility of level flight...all under your own control!

A licensed flight instructor will explain the operation of the airplane and after take-off, he will let you take over the controls and fly the plane yourself.

From that moment on you will never be the same person. The flying world which you had thought was for a select few has now taken you into its fold. You know the meaning of flying through the skies without earthbound noise and congestion to spoil it all.

American Awarded Four New Routes

In a recent decision the Civil Aeronautics Board awarded nonstop authority to American Airlines on flights to Indianapolis, St. Louis, Dallas, and San Antonio. The effective date of the new service will be July 7.

Jack A. Tompkins, vice president for American in Detroit, stated American is delighted that nonstop flights can now be started in these high density markets.

"We now schedule four daily flights to Dallas and six daily to St. Louis, but until this decision we were required to stop in Chicago."

"This convenience of nonstop flights to these important markets is long overdue. This will give American an opportunity to greatly expand flight service to these points; and to use Dallas and San Antonio as gateway cities to Mexico City and Acapulco," he stated further.

"Indianapolis is a brand new market for American out of Detroit," Tompkins said. "We are anticipating that this will be an important addition to the major business communities served by American out of Detroit."

Lockheed Aircraft Sets Record

The Lockheed-Georgia Company announced that its C5 Galaxy Number One has flown to an altitude of 35,000 feet - over six miles - and at speeds up to 520 miles per hour. Both marks are new C5 records.

C5, the world's largest jet airplane, operated on the flight with three General Electric TF-39 production engines and one "specially instrumented prototype powerplant."

Four Galaxys are now in operation with the fifth expected to fly in the near future.

The U.S. Air Force has ordered 115 of the huge airplanes.

'Herky Bird' Is Nearing Milestone

Lockheed's famed "Hercules," the military workhorse C-130 which in recent years joined the airlines, in 1969 will reach one of aviation's most respected reliability records, five million flight hours...almost 600 years in the air.

The Hercules, which operates in Viet Nam as everything from a "Gatling Gun" carrier to a flying ambulance, has exceeded even the most visionary concepts of its designers.

In that war, the tough prop-jet has often spelled the difference between life and death for its crew and passengers, literally and figuratively coming home on little more than wings and prayers.

As respected members of the airlines, the versatile airplanes are welcome figures at airport freight terminals. Lockheed has delivered 1,042 "Herky Birds" to 17 nations.

SUPERJET POWERHOUSE—This comparative picture with Flying World's Bill Balogh standing in the intake of one of the four-engine powerplants on the new Boeing 747 Superjet, is graphic evidence as to the giant size of these engines. The Pratt and Whitney JT-9D turbofan engine is the most powerful turbine engine ever installed on an airplane anywhere in the world. It is capable of producing over 41,000 pounds of thrust, twice as powerful as any other jet engine in use today. The intake opening of the huge jet engine is almost eight feet. The same type engines are also being used on the Lockheed C-5A Galaxy, the largest airplane in the world. Both the 747 and the C-5 have been successfully flown and are now in advanced test stages.

Air Shipment Marks Broken by Delta

T.M. Miller, Delta Air Lines' senior vice president of marketing, predicting an air cargo revolution, said Delta's air cargo growth, "a record of consistent annual gains," had reached new records in all departments during the month of March.

"Biggest gainer," Miller stated, "was air freight. Delta carried 11,289,788 ton miles, 67 per cent over the 6,750,880 ton miles flown in March 1968."

"At the same time, air express carried increased 45 per cent from 858,028 ton miles to 1,246,000."

"Correspondingly, Delta carried 32 per cent more air mail (3,389,692 vs. 2,567,388 ton miles), and 30 per cent more first class mail flown by air."

20 Million Fly On North Central

North Central Airlines today established another milestone in its history by boarding the company's 20-millionth passenger, announced David E. Moran, vice president-traffic and sales.

Moran said that in June 1955 North Central became the first regional airline to carry one million passengers. Nine years later, the company was again recognized as the first regional to board 10 million passengers.

The fifteen-million mark was exceeded in July 1967, and today, just 21 months later, the airline reached 20 million. For the year 1968, North Central boarded a record 3,013,816 passengers.

U.S. Air Cargo Up 17 Percent

Domestic air cargo flown by the U.S. scheduled airlines in the first quarter of 1969 increased by 17 percent over the first quarter of 1968, the Air Transport Association reported this week.

The 11 trunk, nine local service and two all-cargo carriers accounted for 586,703,000 revenue ton miles of freight, mail and express.

Road runner birds of the Southwest are capable of speeds of about 15 miles per hour.

125 Attend Sumpter Adult Classes

SUMPTER—The Sumpter Neighborhood Action Center, Ypsilanti's Samaria Lutheran Church and the Highland Park Community College Department of Continuing Education are co-sponsoring the Adult Education for Academic Credit program.

The classes, which began in January, have an enrollment of approximately 125. Student recruitment was carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schildhaus, Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) and the Sumpter Neighborhood Center staff.

Classes offered in basic and vocational education are taught by volunteer teachers, a large number of the teachers reside in the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti areas.

STUDENTS WILL obtain academic credits toward an eight-grade certificate or high school diploma. Many of them travel as far as 25 miles to attend evening and Saturday classes which are held at the Bessie Hoffman Junior High School, New Boston High and Elementary Schools and the Sumpter Neighborhood Action Center.

Courses offered include refresher and commercial math, general math, U.S. government, U.S. history, English, reading, literacy for the foreign-born, general science, biology, typing, drafting and preparation for health services employment.

The Rev. Dean Tyson, pastor of Samaria Church, explained that his congregation has been involved in adult literacy and vocational training programs for the last year and a half, using volunteer teachers and students enrolled through the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity's Neighborhood Center in Sumpter.

"The staff members, who taught last year, and I feel that the time had come to broaden our educational base and to offer instructional opportunities for academic credit in southwestern Wayne County where continuing education is not presently available," said Tyson.

"THE SCHOOL DISTRICTS of Lincoln, Huron and Airport serve a total population of about 8,000 people living in the Sumpter-area community," he said.

Rev. Tyson explained that the Samaria congregation's involvement in the joint innovative project with Highland Park College, Wayne County OEO, Lincoln Board of Education and the VISTA is an outreach to the total congregation into the total community to serve people regardless of race, creed, ethnic or national origin, or level of academic achievement.

Plans currently are being made to continue the adult education program the year around under the sponsorship of the local school districts.

ANP Sponsors Event

Franklin Is Favored to Retain Golf Crown

BY JIM BRADLEY

SALEM HILLS--This is the big week for the Western Wayne Invitational Tournament when all the marbles are up for grabs Friday in the annual Salem Hills event sponsored by the Associated Newspapers. Last year's champion, Livonia Franklin, is favored to repeat but is expecting stiff competition from the other six contenders to the throne, including Cherry Hill, Garden City West, Garden City East, Belleville, John Glenn and Wayne Memorial.

Last year John Glenn apparently had the tournament won, but suffered a staggering 3-stroke penalty on a ball played by Rocket ace Sam Blaney. Getting new life after the added trio of strokes had brought them into a tie, Franklin won on the extra sudden death hole.

Bob Visor, Franklin's coach, looks forward with great optimism. "I'm very hopeful of taking the crown again this year," the cheerful golf mentor exuded. "My boys are shooting better and better as the year progresses and good competition seems to bring out the best in them." There's more bad news for the seven challenging teams. "We set a school record this past week when we shot 155 in beating Farmington in a practice match," he added.

This is the fourth year for the Western Wayne Invitational involving high schools in the Associated Newspaper circulation area and Livonia schools have dominated the event. Franklin has won the first and third years and Livonia Stevenson took it the second year.

Belleville split a pair of matches last week, taking Taylor Center, 177-184, and losing to Allen Park, 174-184. Jim Harrison (42), Chris Lorentson (43), Bill Hidenfelter (46) and Mark Amerman (46) played for the Tigers.

Edgemont Club Presents 'The Hobbit'

BELLEVILLE--The Edgemont Drama Club will present "The Hobbit" a two-act play adapted from the J.R.R. Tolkien's book-THE HOBBIT.

their triumphs, experience their failure and cry with them, but you will love them in the end.

Come, see "The Hobbit".

The play is to be presented at the Belleville Junior High School, located on Sumpter Road, on May 21, 22 and 23 starting at 7:30 p.m., at each performance. A donation of $1 is asked.

The experience will be one you'll not forget.

The Edgemont Drama Club is in its fourth year of operation.

J.R.R. Tolkien's The Hobbit is one of the most beautiful and meaningful works for Children's Theater to come along in quite awhile.

THE CLUB grew out of a desire to provide extended opportunities for interested students of the Edgemont Elementary School in Belleville, Michigan after some experimental creative dramatic activities had been used within the regular school curriculum.

THIS PLAY has meaning. It has things to say and Tolkien's characters say them well. Entertainment? You will be entertained. Social comment? Satire is fluent.

The Edgemont Drama Club is an extracurricular, after school organization which provides basic training in creative dramatics, improvisation, scenery, costuming, make-up and other activities necessary to production.

There are no super-heroes in this play; just plain, ordinary folk of compassion and commitment with a sense of responsibility to a quest. You'll laugh with them, plan and scheme with them, share Past productions of the organization include "Land of the Dragon" and "Prince Fairyfoot".

The annual productions provide an opportunity for parents, teachers and students to work together on a meaningful venture.
